

MIDNIGHT MURDER.

John Gleason, a Cashier, Killed For His Money.

HORRIBLE DISCOVERY OF A MINING COMPANY'S WATCHMAN.

No Attempt Made to Open the Safe—Tall Hall's Narrow Escape From Lynching—Eight Men Killed in a Fight—Chinese Highlanders at Work—The Crime Record.

INFERNO, Mich., Jan. 5.—John Gleason, paymaster for the Cleveland Iron Mining and the Iron Clift Co., was murdered and his body found in a mine here today at 6 o'clock this morning. Gleason had been at work until the hour named making out the monthly payroll for 800 men employed by the company.

The offices are located at the mines, some distance from other buildings. Just before 6 o'clock the night watchman had gone into the mine to see if all was quiet. He returned and left to complete his rounds. Returning in half an hour he found Gleason lying face down in front of a safe, with a bullet hole in the back of his head. He had a key in his pocket. The safe had already been rifled and a watch and a small sum place thirty-six miles below Atlanta, on the Georgia Railroad, Dr. R. G. Barrett and his wife were brutally murdered by some unknown person who used a coupling pin for a weapon. About 9 o'clock in the evening William McNally, the grandson of the slain couple, was in the room with them in their room with their heads crushed together. McNally was a victim of the same practice and no clues that are known.

HUDSON MURDER CASE

JOPLIN, Mo., Jan. 5.—The Hudson murder case came up for trial in the Circuit Court today, and was postponed to await Judge Burdett, who will take the place of Judge Johnson, who was unable to appear. Having murdered Dr. Howard some years ago, Howard was mixed up in scandal with several married women, and it is thought that he was the murderer of the slain Dr. I. H. Howard. He was seen running away from the scene of the crime.

HALL'S CLOSE CALL.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 8.—Talton Hall, who has killed three men in cold blood, was removed from Gladstone jail yesterday to save his neck. A mob organized and would have hung him. They advanced on the jail and were so wild over his removal that the sheriff had to call in the police to remove to Wizens in a close covered wagon. The people of that place are very angry.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.
MEMPHIS, Jan. 8.—A. J. W. T. White, who lives in this city, and has large lumber interests in Tunica County, Miss., was arrested here Sunday night on the suspicion of being the architect of the cold-blooded murder of the late Governor. He is incarcerated in Columbus, O., for a forged copy of a check he gave. He claims that it is a case of mistaken identity.

KILLED AND CREMATED.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 8.—The house of Charles Jensen, a milk dealer, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. In the ruins was found a letter from Jensen to a woman, in which he stated that he had been recently stabbed in the back. It was also found that he was murdered and the building then set on fire.

ASSASSINATED.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 8.—News reached here today of the assassination of Mr. W. J. West, a prominent citizen of Woodbury, Tenn., who was shot to death last night. It was reported that "a clock last night he was shot with a bullet from a buckshot by some unknown party near the door of his residence."

COUNTERFEITERS CALED.

PAINE, Tex., Jan. 8.—S. T. Edwards, charged with counterfeiting, has been brought here for trial. He is arrested near the border of the state and it has been thought in the act of counterfeiting money.

SHOWN THE QUEER.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 5.—A man Gathered Rowdy William held over there today on a charge of passing counterfeit money. Gather made a confession, and a number of other men, who were his associates, were found at their homes.

NIGHT MEN KILLED.
MACON, Ga., Jan. 5.—Eight men were killed and three were wounded in a fight between the Brights & Williams' gang and the night men here Saturday night. The fight started with a quarrel between two of the men named Ed Williams and John Williams, who were in the city on a charge of burglary. Parker began the shooting. Both he and Williams were killed.

KILLED BY A SALOON-KEEPER.
COLUMBIA, Ind., Jan. 5.—John Kain, a traveling man for the Bedford & Co., wholesale cigar dealers in this city, was shot and mor-

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 8.—After a fortnight's investigation, the San Francisco authorities have announced their findings by the murder of a Chinaman in Gum Cock Alley. The names of the murderer and his victim are not known.

CRIME BRIEFS.

The city will interfere if possible with the election of Mayor George W. Sengling, Jr., at the next regular meeting Feb. 6.

"Jingo" Jones, who has been "chewing" up bad news in the Pennsylvania coal-mining regions, is asked for Philadelphia.

A man named John J. Tamm, who was shot Sunday night at Tanhook, Pa., says Gov. Pattison let him burned at the stake, hanging being a too good death for killing of his wife.

Waste Not, Want Not,
The old time adage, was all right in those days. Now, if you happen to want, an ad vertisement in the SUNDAY POST-Bulletin will cause you to want not.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri:
Fair; to-night slightly colder; northwest wind.
A trough-like barometric depression extends from Lake Superior to the Gulf, with a poorly defined center in Louisiana. Snow has fallen in Nebraska, Eastern Kansas and Western Missouri and also in the lake region. Northern winds prevail from Iowa southward to Louisiana. The skies are cloudy over the greater portion of the country, and conditions are favorable for rain and snow from the Mississippi eastward.

CREATED A SCARE

A Supposed Dynamite Bomb Found On the Court House Steps

WHEN OUT OPEN IT WAS FOUND TO CONTAIN ONLY SAWDUST.

Mr. Miller Still Mystified Over the Dynamite Explosion at His Bakery—He Thinks It Was an Enemy's Work—Something Further About the Crank Sanger, Who Wrote Threatening Letters.

About 10 o'clock this afternoon, J. S. Andrews, a stenographer of the Circuit Clerk's office, in the Court-house, was going out to dinner at the Elks' Club, when he stepped on something round and rolling, half-way down the spiral iron steps.

He was nearly thrown off his feet by the slip, but he caught at the railing and saved himself. Looking then, to see what had tripped him, he discovered a piece of iron tubing about a foot long, placed at both ends with a wooden stopper, driven in tightly and a piece of fine eighteen inches long protruding from one end.

Satisfying himself that the fuse was not lit he picked up the infernal machine very gingerly and carried it back to his office. The room was crowded with clerks and lawyers. Stenographer Andrews carried the bomb very carefully to the desk of Deputy Circuit Clerk J. S. Andrews.

He took out his pocket-knife and cut off a piece of the fuse. He found it was not lit. He touched a match to it and it sputtered bravely. All the lawyers and clerks joined in a rush to see the thing. The door again and somebody ran to the telephone, called up the police and a high official of the Court-house.

Stenographer Andrews in the meantime had gone over to the Elks' Club and found Theodore Gaty, a friend of his. Gaty is in mining, and Mr. Andrews thought of him as a possible culprit. He called Gaty up and told him of the bomb.

Miller is mystified. The snowing down in the alley behind the hallway of Henry J. Miller, Fourth street and Park avenue, was covered to-day by hundreds of footprints made by people who came to see the havoc done by the dynamite explosion yesterday. There was very little outside to satisfy their curiosity. Mr. Miller had had a private party at his house.

Mr. Miller took a reporter of the Post-Dispatch around to the back of the shop and showed where he had walked up the hole and replaced the pane in the window. Then he and Clerk Louis H. Mohr gave the result of their investigation of the explosion.

know it. The police in New Orleans have been asked to look for him, and Capt. Young will hear from them by night.

He says that he has not left that city, he will be arrested down there and prosecuted for his part in the numerous threatening letters with which he has frightened all the people he has met.

Probably Adam Heinemann, the baker at 514 Fourth street, knew him better than any other person in the city. He was a German and he was a very kind man.

THE MERRIWETHER INJURED.

The Journey of the Well-Known St. Louisian Interrupted.

MONTEFIORE, Italy, Jan. 5.—Lee Merriweather of St. Louis, United States, America, an American tourist who has been traveling about Italy and Greece for some months, is lying at a hotel with a broken arm, which he sustained in a fall received a few days ago.

He was to sail on the Umbria from Liverpool for New York on Jan. 2. Mr. Merriweather is well known in Missouri which he has made his home. He came from Memphis where he has been publishing a magazine with his brother.

He has since taken a trip abroad through Europe and published a very successful book on the subject, taken a trip to the Sandwich Islands and Yellowstone Park. His present visit to Europe is for the purpose of gathering material for magazine articles.

He was for a time Labor Commissioner for Missouri.

NEW YORK ASSEMBLY.

Both Houses Organize—No Dead-End Session Attempted.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The general air of subdued excitement about the hotel corridors and the Capitol this morning focused itself upon Independent Senator Edwards of the Thirty-second District, and his attitude was the principal theme of discussion.

The Senate was called to order at 11:30 a. m., by Lieut. Gov. Sheehan. The Republicans did not absent themselves and there were only two vacant seats, those of Senator Seward and Senator Edwards.
